SOURCE

The former landing field of the Plauen (M 51/K 21) airfield was converted into gardens. There were no indications that the airfield was intended to be put into operation again. The Flieger Kaserne was being reconstructed but its cantonment buildings were completed and occupied by a guard detail of the Soviet Zone German police. Work was being done on the garage.

Comment:

The condition of the landing field was confirmed by other sources. No indications of intended reconditioning work on the landing field were observed. The reconditioning of the barracks was previously reported by the same source*.
